

Chapter 3: A Changing Continent
Lesson 4: What Shaped Life in the Middle Colonies?

Pg. 134-135

What made the middle colonies centers of commerce?

What qualities made the middle colonies good for farming?

Pg. 136-137

How did New Netherland come to be called New York?

How did part of New York become New Jersey?

Why did New Netherlands attract people come from all over Europe?

What is meant by "half-freedom"?

Pg 138-139

What two democratic ideals did the John Peter Zenger trial help establish?

How did Pennsylvania get it's name?

What are some things Quakers believed?

Pg. 140-141

In what ways did government in Philadelphia support people's rights and freedoms?

Why was Delaware important to William Penn?

Pg. 142-143

What hardships were faced by workers?

What was the First Great Awakening?

What do the details about Benjamin Franklin show about life in the Middle Colonies?