

Chapter 3: A Changing Continent
Lesson 5: How Did Economics Impact the People in the Southern Colonies?

Pg. 144-145

How did the Southern Colonies differ from those to the north?

How did the colonies make up for not having gold as a natural resource?

What became a problem for the Southern Colonies?

Pg. 146-147

How did the colonies of Virginia and Maryland compare and contrast in regard to religion?

How were the economies of Virginia and Maryland similar?

Pg 148-149

How did the Carolinas end up being split in two?

How did the Carolinas' and Georgia's relationships with American Indians differ?

Why did Georgia and North Carolina develop more slowly than South Carolina?

Pg. 150-151

How were the lives of large plantation owners different than those of the owners of small farms?

What was life like for slaves working on plantations?

Pg. 152-153

Why were slave codes passed?

Why do you think slave owners lived in constant fear of rebellion?

How did slaves manage to build a culture?

Pg. 154-155

What was the triangle trade?

What was shipped in each stage of the trade?